

Aina Nergaard-Nammack of Lewes to show abstract paintings in the Mezzanine Gallery in September

The Delaware Division of the Arts Mezzanine Gallery presents Aina Nergaard-Nammack's exhibition, Fragments of Classical Music, from September 6-27, 2013. The Gallery, open weekdays from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., is located in the Carvel State Office Building, 820 N. French Street, Wilmington. There will be a reception to meet the artist on Friday, September 6 from 5-8 p.m. as part of Wilmington's Art Loop.

This solo exhibition of Aina Nergaard-Nammack's work will showcase a series of paintings based on classical music. The artist uses multiple brushes and her body's physical movement to paint the music that she is immersed in during the time of a painting's creation. Nergaard-Nammack actively moves around the room while painting to obtain different views of the forms and colors creating a vibrant and balanced composition.

Delaware's Individual Artist Fellow in Painting, Aina Nergaard-Nammack, attended the Escuela Superior de Bellas Artes in Spain and continued as a self-taught artist. Nergaard-Nammack has shown her paintings locally, regionally, and internationally and has work in corporate, private, and university collections.

To read an article about her, visit the Division's Individual Artist Fellowship web publication.